RADIO BANDIDO

Oscar Gomez was a soldier for the people, armed with a microphone.

This new documentary explores the unsolved mystery surrounding his death at UCSB in 1994.

Post-Screening Q&A With Director Pepe Urquijo!

Many remain skeptical about the official story behind the tragedy of UC Davis student and KDVS-FM radio activist Oscar Gomez. Radio Bandido sheds light on this young Chicano's journey from Baldwin Park to the bluffs of Isla Vista/UCSB, and the significance of the voice we all lost.

Donations will be collected to help with the completion of this work.

"Popped Culture" is a new series of films that feature radio as a key element - and part of KCSB's Golden Anniversary Season!
